

Spirits, Beer and Wine Restaurant Food Service Acknowledgment

I understand that in order to obtain and maintain a spirits, beer and wine restaurant liquor license, I must (as outlined in RCW 66.24.410(2) and WAC 314-02-035) maintain my establishment in a substantial manner as a place for preparing, cooking and serving of complete meals.

To meet this requirement I understand I must do the following:

- Maintain a menu offering at least eight complete meals:
 1. A complete meal means an entrée and at least one side dish.
 2. An entrée is the main course of a meal. Some examples of entrees are fish, steak, chicken, pork, pasta, pizza, hamburgers, salads, sandwiches and breakfast items (see WAC 314-02-035 for a more complete list). Entrees do not include snack items, or menu items which consist solely of precooked frozen food that is reheated, or consist solely of carry-out items obtained from another business.
Some examples of side dishes are soups, vegetables, salads, potatoes, french fries, rice, fruit and bread.
 3. Complete meals must be prepared on the restaurant premises. (Preparation does not consist solely of plating).
 4. A menu must be available to customers.
 5. The food items necessary to prepare the complete meals must be kept on the premises and must be edible.
- If the premises is 100% dedicated dining (no lounge or game rooms), complete meal service must be available at all times liquor is available for sale, service and consumption.
- Restaurants with less than 100% dedicated dining must provide complete meals at least five hours per day between 8am and 11pm, at least five days per week, plus any other day liquor is sold or served.
- The hours of complete meal service must be conspicuously posted on the premises or listed on the menu.
- A chef or cook must be on duty during complete meal hours.
- Outside the hours complete meals are served, maintain limited food service any time liquor is sold or served:
 1. Limited food service includes appetizers, sandwiches, hamburgers, pizza, soups, salads or fry orders.
 2. Snacks such as peanuts, popcorn or chips do not meet this requirement.
 3. Notice of the availability of limited food service must be conspicuously posted or listed on the menu.
- Maintain kitchen equipment necessary to support the required complete meals.

I certify by my signature below that I currently meet and will continue to maintain the above requirements as long as I/we hold a Spirits/Beer/Wine Restaurant Liquor License.
